

DR. ANGBIN YASMIN

Dr. Angbin Yasmin is an Assistant Professor of History at Hamdard Institute of Legal Studies & Research (HILSR) since 2018. She is a PhD from Aligarh Muslim University (AMU). Her thesis is titled 'Profiling and Imaging Women in Mughal India; The Persian texts, Travellers' Accounts, Legal documents and Miniatures'. She specializes in Medieval Indian History. Her research interests are Gender History, History of Sexuality, Legal history, Socio- Economic History, Mughal Miniatures, Women's Writings etc.

She has formidable research experience. Her work on 'Middle-class Women in Mughal India' has won the B.B Chaudhury best paper award in the category of Economic and Social history of India, in Indian History Congress in 2015. Her research works on Medieval Indian History got published in various International and National Journals and edited books.

She is currently Assistant Proctor at Jamia Hamdard. She has also served as the convenor of Departmental Cell on Anti-Sexual Harassment, Library Committee, Member of Board of studies, Examination, Member of Admission committee, and Disciplinary committee at the departmental level. She is also a Member of Film and Drama Club at the University level. She has been an active member of Indian History Congress, Member of Asian Association of Women's Studies, and Member of Historians of Islamic Art Association (HIAA).

She can be reached at angbinyasmin@jamiahamdard.ac.in