Course Syllabus

Course Overview:

Course Title: History – II

Course Code: BALLB - 204

Semester: Second

Credits: 4

Medium of Instruction/Assessment: English

Objectives of the course: The purpose of this course is to help students understand India's colonial past, the shaping of nationalist ideology and the unfolding of the national movement. Integral to the course is the premise that ideas of democracy and freedom and corresponding social relations and political and institutional practices took shape in the context of the anticolonial struggles. The current legal system reflects the imprint of the colonial experience and the manner in which they have been transformed in the course of social struggles and the national movement, which is why it is critical for the lawyers of tomorrow to have grounding in this period of our collective legal history.

Assessment and Evaluation:

The course has a weightage of 100 marks. 75 % of the marks will be covered by the End Semester Examination; while as 25 % will constitute internal assessment to be done by the concerned instructor.

- (A) End Semester Examination: There will be ten questions in the Question paper with two from each unit. Students will have to answer five questions in all selecting one from each unit.
- (B) Internal Assessment: A student will be assessed and evaluated by the concerned teacher during the entire semester at regular intervals. This will be done by employing a wide range of methods including written tests, tutorials, term paper writing, presentations etc. Attendance of the students will also form a part of the internal assessment.
