Academic Year - 2012

1. About Jamia Hamdard

Jamia Hamdard came into existence in 1989 when the Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India, declared it a “ Deemed to be University” on the recommendations of the University Grants Commission (UGC) under Section 3 of UGC Act 1956. The University comprised the erstwhile Hamdard college of Pharmacy, Hamdard Tibbi College and other Hamdard institutions viz. Ruffaida College of Nursing, Institute of History of Medicine and Medical Research and Indian Institute of Islamic Studies. Each of these institutes is having its own mark in the academics and research fields. It was realisation of dream of its Founder Hakeem Abdul Hameed, a great philanthropist and educationist of his time, who invested the profits from his fledgling industrial house “Hamdard Dawakhana” in the education mission. The University was inaugurated by the then young Prime Minister of India, Shri Rajiv Gandhi. Since its inauguration, Jamia Hamdard has strived to maintain high standard of education to meet the challenges at local and international levels.

In recognition of the University’s contribution to high quality teaching and research, the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC), a constituent body of the University Grants Commission, conferred on it ‘A’ Grade. Jamia Hamdard tried to maintain these standards and has been able to attract talented students and faculty from all over the country. Currently, students from over 30 nationalities are enrolled in the University in different courses. This speaks volumes of the reach and quality of the University’s academic profile.

In a short period of about 20 years, Jamia Hamdard has been able to transform it into one of the leading Universities in India and its esteemed alumni are spread across the globe.

At present Jamia Hamdard comprises of eight Faculties each with distinct teaching and research programme. Each Faculty and Department has been created after due process of discussion, brainstorming sessions at various statutory bodies of University.
