

Jamia Hamdard
(Deemed University)
Hamdard Nagar, New Delhi-110062

Walk-in-Interview for the post of JRF

A walk-in interview will be held for the post of Junior Research Fellow (01) in the following DBT-sponsored project.

Topic: Modulatory role of nucleus accumbens and ventral tegmental area in behavioural tagging: A new model for learning and memory.

Principal Investigator (PI): Dr. Suhel Parvez, Department of Medical Elementology and Toxicology, E-mail: sparvez@jamiyahamdard.ac.in Qualifications: Master's degree in Toxicology, Neuroscience or Forensic Science with at least 60% marks.

Desirable: Preference will be given to students with experience in animal handling with respect to neurotoxicological studies.

Stipend: Rs. 16,000 P.M. + HRA.

Duration of project: One year and three months

Candidates who have qualified JRF/LS examination of CSIR/UGC/ICMR will be preferred as per DST OM No. A.20020/11/97-IFD dated 31.03.2010.

Date of interview: February 10, 2014; reporting by 10:00 am.

The appointment of Admission to PhD programme of the research fellows will be as per Jamia Hamdard rules. Interested candidates should reach for Walk-in Interview at the Department of Medical Elementology & Toxicology, Faculty of Science along with latest CV and original documents. Advance CV may be sent by email to PI.

REGISTRAR