

JAMIA HAMDARD

(Hamdard University)

PROSPECTUS OF JAMIA HAMDARD RESIDENTIAL COACHING ACADEMY

(Supported by Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India through University Grant Commission)

Academic Year: 2017

1. Jamia Hamdard

Jamia Hamdard came into existence in 1989 when the Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India, declared it a “ Deemed to be University” on the recommendations of the University Grants Commission (UGC) under Section 3 of UGC Act 1956. The University comprised the erstwhile Hamdard college of Pharmacy, Hamdard Tibbi College and other Hamdard institutions viz. Rufaida College of Nursing, Institute of History of Medicine and Medical Research and Indian Institute of Islamic Studies. Each of these institutes is having its own mark in the academics and research fields. It was realisation of dream of its Founder Hakeem Abdul Hameed, a great philanthropist and educationist of his time, who invested the profits from his fledgling industrial house “Hamdard Dawakhana” in the education mission. The University was inaugurated by the then young Prime Minister of India, Shri Rajiv Gandhi. Since its inauguration, Jamia Hamdard has strived to maintain high standard of education to meet the challenges at local and international levels.

In recognition of the University’s contribution to high quality teaching and research, the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC), a constituent body of the University Grants Commission, conferred on it ‘A’ Grade. Jamia Hamdard tried to maintain these standards and has been able to attract talented students and faculty from all over the country. Currently, students from over 30 nationalities are enrolled in the University in different courses. This speaks volumes of the reach and quality of the University’s academic profile.

During this period, Jamia Hamdard has been able to transform itself into one of the leading Universities in India and its esteemed alumni are spread across the globe.

At present Jamia Hamdard comprises of eight Faculties each with distinct teaching and research programme. Recently the University, by establishing a Medical College, has added one more feather in its cap. The University strives to provide the best learning facilities to its students on campus and those enrolled in Jamia Hamdard Residential Coaching Academy.

2. Jamia Hamdard Residential Coaching Academy

Jamia Hamdard Residential Coaching Academy(JHRCA) was established in September, 2009 under the aegis of Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India and funded by the University Grants Commission.

The main thrust of the Coaching Programme is to prepare candidates from the Minority community along with SC/ST and Women candidates to compete and secure jobs in Government and Public Sector Units. Academic support and guidance along with personality development interventions are emphasised at the Academy for holistic development of candidates to face the stiff competition for entry into various services.
