

100th IAEC Meeting

The completion of the 100th IAEC Meeting marks a significant milestone for the Central Animal House Facility and reflects Jamia Hamdard's continued commitment to promoting ethical animal research, regulatory compliance, and excellence in biomedical research in accordance with the guidelines of the Committee for the Control and Supervision of Experiments on Animals (CCSEA).

