Report prepared by : Hasan Zaidi

About the Event:

The Literary Club, Jamia Hamdard organized a Calligraphy Competition on the occasion of Founders' Day, 2025. Students were invited to participate and showcase their best calligraphy pieces, highlighting creativity, precision, and artistic expression. The theme was a quote by Hakim Sahab, aiming to promote cultural and artistic skills among students. The event was held on-campus at Jamia Hamdard.

Key Highlights:

- The competition witnessed enthusiastic participation from students representing various departments of Jamia Hamdard as well as an overwhelming participation from various other universities.
- Participants prepared and submitted their original calligraphy works physically at the venue, which ensured authenticity and created a vibrant on-campus atmosphere.
- The competition encouraged students to showcase creativity through artistic lettering, strokes, and presentation, blending traditional calligraphy styles with modern approaches.
- The panel of judges included Prof. Farhat Basheer, Mr. Maroof Raza and Dr. Aatika Khan.
- Judges evaluated entries on multiple aspects including originality, neatness, balance of design, creativity, and overall impact of the presentation.
- The competition also emphasized the value of handwriting as an expressive art form in today's digital era, encouraging students to reconnect with cultural and artistic traditions.
- Plagiarized or copied works were not entertained, maintaining the fairness and integrity of the competition.
- The event attracted an appreciative student audience, which made the environment supportive and lively.

Winners of the Competition:

- 1st Place: Asfia
- 2nd Place: Kainat Hussain
