Date of event : 15th September 2025

Report prepared by : Naysa Mahendru

About the Event:

To commemorate Founders' Day 2025, the Literary Club, Jamia Hamdard organized an Elocution Competition, inviting students to deliver powerful speeches that reflect clarity of thought, articulation, and persuasive expression. The theme was "National education, policy and vision of Hakim Sahab", aimed at promoting critical thinking and effective public speaking. The event took place on-campus at Jamia Hamdard.

Key Highlights:

- The competition drew enthusiastic participation from students across departments, eager to voice their perspectives.
- Participants delivered their speeches live, demonstrating command over language, voice modulation, and confidence.
- The theme "Hakeem Sahab as an architect of the community's destiny" allowed for a diverse range of interpretations and viewpoints, encouraging original thought and informed expression.
- Judging criteria included content quality, coherence, delivery, body language, and audience engagement.
- The event highlighted the importance of oratory skills in academic and professional life.
- Speeches were required to be original, and participants were discouraged from using memorized or copied content.
- The live audience added to the dynamic atmosphere, responding enthusiastically to impactful performances.

- A qualified panel of faculty members, i.e Mr. Maroof Raza and Dr. Abdul Qadil, served as judges, and their decisions were final.

Winners of the Competition:

- 1st Place: Syed Abdul Azeez
- 2nd Place: Shaili Pawar
- 3rd Place: Arjoo Siddiqui

Outcome:

The competition empowered students to express their views eloquently and confidently. With thought-provoking speeches and energetic delivery, the event successfully celebrated the art of public speaking.
