Report prepared by : Naysa Mahendru

About the Event:

The Literary Club, Jamia Hamdard organized a Poetry Competition on the occasion of Founders' Day, 2025. Students were invited to participate and present their original poems, reflecting creativity, emotion, and poetic finesse. The theme was Hamdardi/ Compassion, encouraging literary expression that connects with cultural, social, or personal narratives. The event was held on-campus at Jamia Hamdard.

Key Highlights:

- The competition saw vibrant participation from students across various departments of Jamia Hamdard.
- Participants recited their self-composed poems in front of a live audience, creating a compelling and expressive atmosphere.
- The theme Hamdardi/ Compassion inspired students to explore various poetic forms, ranging from free verse to rhyme, enabling a rich showcase of talent.
- Judges assessed entries based on originality, thematic relevance, emotional depth, language, and overall delivery. Judges included Prof. Anwar H. Khan, Dr. Mohammad Ahmed Khan and Dr. Jamal Fatima.
- The event emphasized the significance of poetry as a timeless medium for artistic and emotional expression.
- All entries were original compositions, with plagiarism strictly prohibited to ensure integrity and fairness.
- A supportive and engaged audience added to the charm of the poetic evening.

- A panel of esteemed faculty members judged the performances, and their verdict was final.

Winners of the Competition:

- 1st Place: Amisha Yadav
- 2nd Place: Fatima Ahmad
- 3rd Place: Mariyam Fatma

Outcome:

The competition offered students a platform to articulate their thoughts through poetry, fostering appreciation for literary arts. The enthusiastic turnout and heartfelt performances made it a memorable celebration of words and expression.
