Date of event : 15th September 2025

Report prepared by : Hasan Zaidi

About the Event:

The Literary Club, Jamia Hamdard organized a Portrait Competition on the occasion of Founders' Day, 2025. Students were invited to participate in creating or presenting portraits, showcasing human expressions, emotions, and artistic talent. The theme was Hakim Sahab, focusing on creativity, representation, and artistic skill. The event was held on-campus at Jamia Hamdard.

Key Highlights:

- The competition drew active participation from students across various departments of Jamia Hamdard as well as other universities, who showcased their portrait-making skills with dedication and creativity.
- The theme for the event was “Hakim Sahab”, which inspired participants to create works that reflected his vision, personality, and contributions, making the theme highly meaningful for Founders' Day.
- Entries were submitted physically at the venue, giving participants an opportunity to interact, observe each other's styles, and receive real-time appreciation from peers.
- The artworks displayed a wide variety of approaches — from realistic sketches to creative interpretations — highlighting the depth of talent among students.
- The panel of judges included Ms. Heena Parveen and Col. Tahir Mustafa.
- Judges assessed the portraits based on criteria such as creativity, technical execution (shading, proportions, detailing), originality, and the ability to capture the essence of Hakim Sahab.
- Strict emphasis was placed on originality, with any copied or heavily manipulated works leading to disqualification.
- The event created an engaging atmosphere, with students and faculty members alike appreciating the talent and effort that went into each submission.
- The results were announced at the venue, and the decision of the judging panel was considered final and binding.

Winners of the Competition:

- 1st Place: Mohd. Almas Ashraf
- 2nd Place: Ali Aftab
- 3rd Place: Sahar Hasin

- Consolation prize : Komal Yadav and Alfiya Multazim

Outcome:

The competition allowed students to demonstrate their portrait skills, blending creativity and technical expertise. With an overwhelming response of entries from various departments and universities, the event was a great success.
