PRESS RELEASE

The National Service Scheme (NSS), Jamia Hamdard successfully organized the Viksit Bharat Yuva Connect Programme.

New Delhi, December 5, 2025: The National Service Scheme (NSS), Jamia Hamdard successfully organized the Viksit Bharat Yuva Connect Programme (VBYCP)—a flagship initiative of the Ministry of Youth Affairs & Sports, Government of India. The programme aims to empower young citizens and strengthen their role in advancing the national vision of Viksit Bharat @ 2047, which envisions India as a fully developed nation by the centenary of Independence.

The event featured inspiring addresses from distinguished speakers who emphasized the transformative potential of India's youth:

- Shri Priyank Mishra, APS to the Hon'ble Minister, Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports, highlighted the government's unwavering commitment to youth-led development. He emphasized that programmes like VBYCP are critical for channelizing the strengths and aspirations of young citizens toward national progress.
- Shri Pratham Singh delivered an engaging and motivational message encouraging students to become active contributors in community development and national growth. His address inspired students to take ownership of their social responsibilities.
- Ms. Nancy Ranga, Young Professional, Regional Directorate of NSS, Delhi, spoke about the significant role of NSS in instilling leadership, discipline and social awareness among students, urging them to make the best use of opportunities offered through NSS initiatives.
- Col. Tahir Mustafa, Registrar, Jamia Hamdard, appreciated the efforts of NSS and encouraged students to view themselves as key stakeholders in India's developmental journey.

The programme also marked the presence of Ms. Elza Jose, Youth Icon, and Ms. Neelu Thadani, District Youth Officer, Nehru Yuva Kendra (NYK), who interacted with the volunteers and reinforced the importance of youth participation in nation-building activities.

The event was thoughtfully organized under the guidance of Prof. Jawed Ahmed and Mr. Mirza Rahil Beg, Coordinator, NSS whose efforts ensured meaningful engagement and active student participation.

The VBYCP provided students with valuable insights into India's developmental roadmap and motivated them to contribute through community service, awareness campaigns, and leadership initiatives. NSS Jamia Hamdard remains committed to shaping responsible, empowered, and socially conscious youth.
