

Dr. Ehtesham ur Rahman - Medical Superintendent, Majeedia Unani Hospital, Jamia Hamdard

Dr. Ehtesham ur Rahman is currently working as Medical Superintendent at Majeedia Unani Hospital, bringing expertise in healthcare administration and clinical oversight.

His background includes progressive roles within Majeedia Unani Hospital. In his capacities, he is focused on managing hospital functions and coordinating clinical services. His contributions supported healthcare delivery systems and hospital regulatory compliance at MUH.

Prior to their current role, Dr. Ehtesham ur Rahman served as a Deputy Medical Superintendent for almost a decade at Majeedia Unani Hospital. He has also worked with HAHC hospital Jamia Hamdard for 7 years in medical administration demonstrating his capabilities in hospital management and patient care & safety. Their work history includes overseeing medical operations and ensuring quality patient care.

Dr. Ehtesham ur Rahman holds an BUMS and MBA (Healthcare) from Jamia Hamdard New Delhi, reflecting his applied medical knowledge and administration expertise to establish MUH at new heights.